Subject: Recommendation

I am extremely happy to recommend Shekhar to your esteemed university for his undergraduate course. I have known Shekhar for five years as a student and as a person, teaching him language and General Knowledge as a subject. He is a responsible and reliable student. His focus towards his goals and the perseverance exhibited till he achieves it is quite appreciable. His achievement as the "Youngest Entrepreneur" is a story of determination and diligence. As a self motivated person, he has always taken the road not taken by others, set objectives and worked hard for them. He is an avid reader with inspirational and spiritual books as his prime choice.

In the school project works and group discussions, I found him an active participant and an inspiring team leader. A systematic and disciplined person as he is, he was also a step ahead in submitting his assignments. While conducting test for listening and speaking skills, I noticed his out of the box thinking in solving a problem and good communicative skills in explaining his views. His pleasing personality and ability to remain balanced and cheerful make him an exceptional and amicable. An interesting aspect of Shekhar is his clarity regarding his concepts and goals. He prefers to research the topic thoroughly before presenting it.

Shekhar will sure be an asset to any of the universities he joins. The global exposure and the support that is provided by the niche curriculum would help him in exploring the real goals of education. I am glad to suggest him for full financial support as it would help him in completing the course without any hindrance.

For any further query regarding Shekhar feel free to contact me on the number given below.
